

Church Covenant with New Member(s) (date)

It is with great joy that the elders announce to you that the [ ] household has requested admission to the covenant community of God's people known as "All Saints Presbyterian Church" of Ft. Worth, TX. We have met with this household and present them to you as true followers of Jesus Christ.

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

We will now ask the [ ] to respond the following questions as they take their membership vows. As followers of Jesus Christ and as a believing covenant household do you pledge to uphold your duty to God, to your neighbor, and to this congregation by the following:

1. To seek to live your lives in such a manner so as to bring honor to Christ and His church through the pursuit of holiness and peace with all men?
2. To diligently make use of the means God has provided for growth in your Christian life, such as, regular Bible study and reading, prayer, fellowship, church attendance and the Lord's Supper.
3. To discover, improve and make use of your God-given gifts for the service of others, especially those who are of the household of faith.
4. To willingly embrace the doctrines of our faith, expressed in the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms, as described in the church constitution.
5. To submit yourself to the discipline of this church and its elders, as the Scriptures require, and as express in the church constitution, graciously receiving both instruction and correction as well as submitting to the judicial sanctions of the church.
6. To support this congregation by your prayers, attendance, tithing and labor, and by the spreading of the gospel to those outside the faith.
7. To commit yourself to the establishment and maintenance of a covenant Christian household in the way of our Christian faith.

Do you so pledge?

CONGREGATIONAL PLEDGE

To the congregation of ASPC. Having heard this covenant pledge, declared before you this day, do you likewise pledge yourself in covenant with the [ ] household, to not only fulfill these duties yourselves, but to also pray for and encourage them as fellow Christians and members of this congregation? Do you so pledge?
